

Tuesday Talk with the Dean

CEHD Happenings

Our faculty, staff, and students are all deeply engaged in high-quality learning in our remote circumstance. We are fortunate that so many of our faculty are already well-versed in online education. Beginning in the Fall, 2020 semester, the following undergraduate programs will go online: Elementary Education, Kinesiology, and Rehabilitation & Human Services. We are happy to grow our opportunities to educate students, wherever they are!

As we near the end of the semester, we are sad that we will not be able to wish our graduates well as they cross the stage. However, every student will be celebrated in UND's virtual ceremony – <https://und.edu/academics/commencement/index.html>

We have several graduate programs accepting applications: Master's degrees in Curriculum & Instruction, Counseling, Elementary Education, Kinesiology, and TESOL, to name a few. The doctoral program in Educational Practice & Leadership is also taking applications. This is a great time to explore what an advanced degree can do for you, as educational and human service professionals are always needed.

Something to think about....

"Educating the mind without educating the heart is no education at all" (Aristotle). As we have seen countless acts of kindness during these times of uncertainty, we know with compassion and empathy, endurance and kindness, we are not only UND STRONG, we are indeed ONE UND. So as we move forward together, be kind to yourself. Take a moment to go for a walk, or make a phone call, or spend some face time with someone today. Fill your heart as you fill your mind. And always, take care. U matter.
