CEHD Happenings

After an extraordinary amount of planning and preparation, Fall 2020 is underway! We are delighted to welcome (and welcome back) more than 1,300 students in CEHD, both on campus and online. Labs are running, student teachers are teaching, and grad students are practicing their professions and conducting research. Learning is occurring everywhere and in all conditions and our students and faculty are proof of this effort!

We are happy to welcome 9 new faculty to CEHD. In the Department of Education, Health & Behavior Studies, we are joined by Dr. Cerynn Desjarlais (Counseling), Dr. Keri Frantell (Counseling Psychology), Amy Geinert (School Counseling), and Dr. Andjela Kaur (Rehabilitation & Human Services). The Department of Teaching, Leadership & Professional Practice welcomes Dr. Christopher Clark (Social Studies), Theresa Grijalva (Special Ed), Dr. Yujin Lee (Math), Dr. Jolyse Migan-Gandonou Horr (Applied Behavior Analysis), and Dr. Joanna Ryan (Applied Behavior Analysis).

Something to think about....

“Adaptability to change is itself a hallmark of successful education.” ~ Peter Hilton

Adaptation is the name of the game in CEHD. We have modified most of our courses to a hyflex model to accommodate safety, worked with the Grand Forks School District to continue providing invaluable and safe learning experiences, and moved our entire Northern Prairie Community Clinic operation to telehealth. With supportive colleagues and creative thinking, we have all learned that we can do new things, surprisingly well.
